21st CCLC (Delaware)

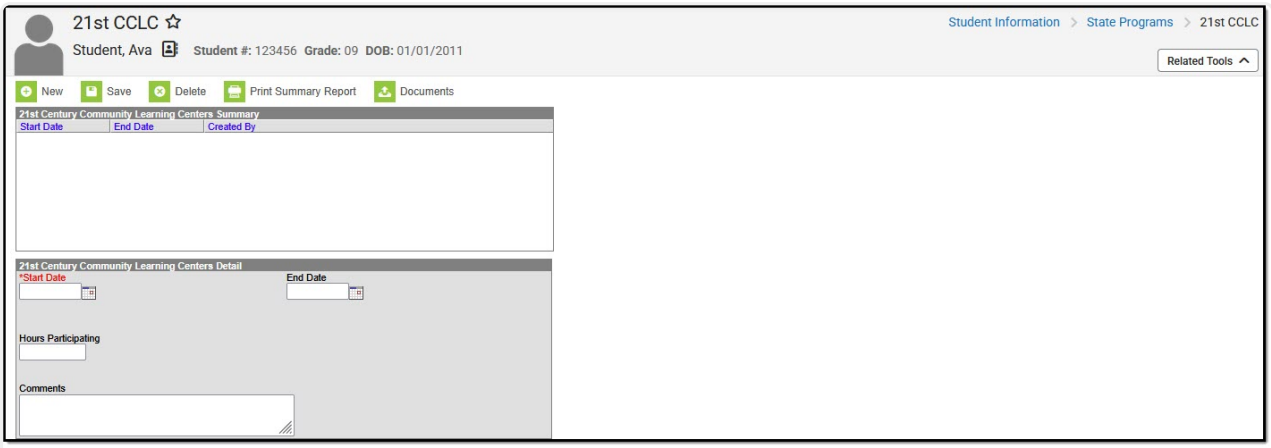
Last Modified on 08/13/2026 9:11 am CDT

Tool Search: CCLC

The 21st Century Community Learning Centers (CCLCs) provide academic enrichment opportunities during non-school hours for children, particularly those attending high-poverty, low-performing schools. This program helps students meet state and local academic standards in core subjects and offers enrichment activities, literacy programs, and other educational services to families.

The information below outlines the 21st CCLC data fields specific to Delaware. Review local/state practices for students participating in 21st CCLC programs prior to using the 21st CCLC tool to manage student participation data.

> Refer to the core 21st CCLC article for information on tool rights, adding records, uploading documents, and transferring student records.



Delaware 21st CCLC Detail Editor

Field Descriptions

Field	Description	Location
Start Date (Required)	Indicates the date when the student began participating in 21st CCLC.	Ad hoc Inquiries: Student > Learner > State Programs > TwentyFirstCCLC > startDate Database Location: twentyfirstCCLC.startDate

End Date	Indicates the date when the student's participation in 21st CCLC ended.	Ad hoc Inquiries: Student > Learner > State Programs > TwentyFirstCCLC > endDate Database Location: twentyfirstCCLC.endDate
Hours Participating	Indicates the hours of student participation for the selected program.	Ad hoc Inquiries: Student > Learner > State Programs > TwentyFirstCCLC > attendanceHours Database Location: twentyfirstCCLC.attendanceHours
Comments	Additional information about the record.	Ad hoc Inquiries: Student > Learner > State Programs > TwentyFirstCCLC > comments Database Location: twentyfirstCCLC.comments