

Evaluate Student Work using Scoring Rubrics

Last Modified on 04/22/2024 4:21 pm CDT

Advanced assignment tools are available as part of the Campus Learning premium offering. Visit What is Campus Learning? to learn more.

Location: Grade Book > expand an Assignment > Evaluate Work; Teaching Center > score icon

Evaluate student work using a scoring rubric by clicking Evaluate Work in the Grade Book or by clicking Score and the #/# Scored link in the Teaching Center.

If the student has submitted work using Google Drive or the text editor, view the scoring rubric next to the student's submission. Download other types of submissions to view. See the Scoring Submissions article for more information about scoring.

If the assignment does not have submissions enabled, the scoring rubric alone opens.

The screenshot displays the Infinite Campus interface. On the left, a text editor shows a student's submission titled "To Kill A Mockingbird: Character Essay" by Andy Student, dated 10/29/18. The text is a list of vegetables and fruits. On the right, a scoring rubric for "TKAM Character Essay" is visible. The rubric has two criteria: "Focus & Detail" and "Organization". Each criterion has four levels of performance (4, 3, 2, 1) with corresponding descriptions and point values. The "Focus & Detail" criterion is currently selected, and the level 2 description is highlighted in blue. The "Organization" criterion is also visible, with its level 2 description highlighted in blue. The rubric includes a "Feedback" column with a "Score" field (6/10) and a "Comments" field.

Criteria	4	3	2	1	Feedback
Focus & Detail	There is one clear, well-focused topic. Main ideas are clear and are well supported by detailed and accurate information. (10 pts)	There is one clear, well-focused topic. Main ideas are clear but are not well supported by detailed information. (8 pts)	There is one topic. Main ideas are somewhat clear. (6 pts)	The topic and main ideas are not clear. (4 pts)	Score: 6 / 10 Comments: More emphasis on topic sentences would help your focus.
Organization	The introduction is inviting, states the main topic, and provides an overview of the paper. Information is relevant and presented in a logical order. The conclusion is strong. (10 pts)	The introduction states the main topic and provides an overview of the paper. A conclusion is included. (8 pts)	The introduction states the main topic. A conclusion is included. (6 pts)	There is no clear introduction, structure, or conclusion. (4 pts)	Score: 8 / 10 Comments:

View the Scoring Rubric next to the student's submission.

The Enhanced Curriculum tool right in Additional Access Rights > Instruction Tools grants access to this option. See the Instruction Tool Rights article for more information.

Resize the view of the scoring rubric using the arrow and collapse icons in the left margin of the scoring rubric

Select scoring rubric cells to highlight.

- For assignments scored using points, enter a score for each row or modify the auto-calculated score if desired. The Total in the cell at the bottom right of the scoring rubric populates in the grade book.
- For assignments scored using rubrics or marks, select the rubric score in the bottom row to indicate the score for the assignment that populates in the grade book.

Enter Comments by row. Click Save when finished.

Students and parents can view unscored and scored rubrics for assignments in the Campus Student and Campus Parent apps. Student and parents view a score rubric by opening the assignment and clicking View Scoring Rubric, which generates a PDF of the rubric.

To see what assignments look like from the student's view, edit the assignment, click Preview at the bottom of the editor, and choose Student Preview. The PDF version of scored rubrics that students and parents see matches the rubrics generated in the Scored Rubrics Report.