The FRAM Batch Letter report generates the following letter types: Pre-Application Letters, Direct Certification Approval Letters, and the Approval Denial Letters. Only one letter per household generates.

Due to the amount of applications submitted in some districts, this batch process makes it easier to print Approval/Denial letters.

Logic for Each Letter Type

Letter Type	Logic	Notes
Pre-Application Letter	This letter prints for all households in the district where at least one student has an active enrollment for the upcoming school year. This letter uses logic included in the Census Mailing Labels report. One letter per household prints. Date Logic Uses the first day of school where students are considered active. This letter must be sent to every household in the district where students are actively enrolled for the school year.	In order for this letter to print with addresses, the Use Mailing Address option needs to be selected on the created letter. The Pre-Application Letter is a required letter that must be sent to every household in the district. This letter is typically sent in July or August prior to school starting. The letter explains to parents/guardians about the Free/Reduced Application process and how to apply for benefits.

Letter Type	Logic	Notes
Direct Certification Approval Letter	This letter is sent to households where Direct Certification files have been imported or manually entered and the district must send the household guardian a letter indicating the students in the household were approved for benefits from the State Agency. Date Logic            This date is based on when the student's eligibility began. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If a household has more than one child in the district and both received the same direct certification on the same date, only one letter prints.</li> <li>• If a household has more than one child in the district, Campus prints a separate letter for each student in the household who is approved on the same date with a certification and eligibility combination that is different than other student(s) in the household.</li> <li>• If there is more than one child and multiple dates were used for the direct certification, two letters print. There must be an Eligibility and Direct Certified Type on the student eligibility for the letter to generate.</li> </ul>	Guardian and mailing assignments for students determine how letters are addressed and how students appear on the letter. This letter is meant for sending to households where students are approved for benefits via a Direct Certification file. The district must send the household guardian a letter indicating the students in the household were approved for benefits from the State Agency. This letter is typically printed on a daily basis based on when the Direct Certifications are entered. There must be an Eligibility and Direct Certified type on the student eligibility for the letter to print.

Letter Type	Logic	Notes
Approval/Denial Letter	This letter is meant to be printed after a Meal Benefits Application is processed via the Household Application Editor . It can also be printed at the end of the day in a batch format to send to households. Mark the Include Letters for Online Applications checkbox to include Online Application Approval/Denial letters. This option is only applicable to schools and districts using Online Meal Benefits Application functionality. Date Logic Date logic used in this letter is the Eligibility Effective Date.	This letter notifies the signer of the application if it was approved or denied. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If the Use Custom Approval/Denial Letter FRAM preference is on, a custom letter prints. If the preference is off, a canned letter prints.</li> <li>• The mailing flag must be set for the signer for a letter to generate. This letter is addressed to the application signer and uses that person's mailing address. This letter prints applications processed on the current date or prior date.</li> </ul>
