This tool is available as part of the Campus Learning premium offering.

Tool Search: Curriculum Report

The Curriculum report provides a list of your curriculum for a section, including assignments, resources, and folders, to provide an overview of your curriculum.

Use this report to view the trajectory of your curriculum and how assignments and activities fit together.

The screenshot shows the Infinite Campus interface for the Curriculum Report. At the top, there's a green header with the Infinite Campus logo and navigation icons. Below the header, the page title is "Curriculum Report" with a star icon. A breadcrumb trail shows "Instruction > Reports > Curriculum Report". The main content area has a "Select Report" dropdown menu set to "Curriculum". Below this, a section titled "Curriculum" contains a description: "This report includes the curriculum aligned to the section with the dates and duration, teacher notes, and aligned standards." To the left, there's a "Report Options" section with a "Select Section *" dropdown menu showing "1) 3600-4 AP Literature". At the bottom left, there's a "Generate PDF" button. A footer note says "Generate a report of all curriculum assigned to a section."

Generating the Curriculum Report

1. Select a Section to view items in that section.
2. Click Generate PDF to view the report in PDF format or click the arrow button next to Generate to select a different format.

This report includes Folders, Resources, and Assignments. The Curriculum Focus field reports information entered in the Notes area of the assignment that are visible to teachers only.

Standards listed are those aligned in the Grading section of the assignment.
