Student Gap Scheduler

This tool searches for students with an empty instructional hole in their schedule, and then either builds a report, or allows them to click on the student and fill in a grade or ad-hoc filter for limiting the students. The periods are listed in the order of period sequence, please make sure the period sequence starts from 00. The report lists the selected schedule grid, booked periods marked as X, the gap periods shown as shaded cell.

Read rights can Overload Sections are also needed so staff can add students to full course sections.

For more information about Tool Rights and how they function, see the Tool Rights article.

A Calendar must be selected in the Campus toolbar, usually the future school year's calendar. This tool is often used after using the Scheduling Board to complete student schedules, but it can be used for finding gaps in student's schedules in the current year.

When a user has tool rights to Can Overload Sections, it is possible to add a student to a section even if the section is full. However, this cannot be done from the Student Gap Scheduler. See the Walk-In Scheduler article for more information.

See the Scheduling Tool Rights article for more information.

Available Fields

The following fields are available on the Student Gap Scheduler.

Option	Description
Which students would you like to include in the report?	Select the students to include by Grade Level or by Ad hoc Filter. The grade levels available for selection are those grade levels that are in the selected calendar in the Campus toolbar. The Ad hoc Filter selection includes only those students in the selected filter who have gaps in their schedules. An Enrollment Effective Date is required to generate this report and is populated with the current date for active calendars, or the first date of the first term in future calendars. This date can be changed by typing a new date in mmdyy format or by using the calendar icon to select a date. The entered date filters out students who are starting later in the school year from the initial gap scheduler task.
Which report type would you like?	Select which report to generate: the Detail option or the Summary option. The Detail option displays a graphical representation of the selected terms and periods with gaps shaded in gray and occupied or booked periods displaying a X. The Summary option displays a numeric list of just the periods where the student has a gap.

Option	Description
Which periods would you like to include in the report?	Select which periods to to check for gaps. Depending on the layout of the calendar, it may be better to review gaps by term and period one term at a time rather than the entire calendar at one time. Marking the Schedule checkbox at the top of the grid marks all checkboxes for all terms and schedule structures. Selecting a Term checkbox populates the checkboxes for just that term. Select the Periods to include down the left hand side of the grid. Individual checkboxes for specific periods and terms can be selected or not selected to target the report more precisely.
Report Format	Select PDF or DOCX format.
Student and Report Display	Select either the Find Students button to display the students who have gaps in their schedule or select the Generate Report button to print a report in the selected format (Summary or Detail). The Find Students button displays the students who have gaps in the Search results list. Selecting a student's name from this list displays the Walk-In Scheduler, allowing the user to manually attempt to fill gaps in the schedule based on student requests.
