Report Logic

- The report considers the first 100 days of instruction.
 - When the Calendar Type (System Administration > Calendar > Type) is F Four Day Week, the first 80 instructional days report.

- Non-instructional days are not included in the count range.
- Students with Start Statuses selected on the extract editor AND an active primary enrollment on the 100th day (or 80th day) of instruction are counted.
- Students that were IEP, EL, or FRL at any time during the reporting period report as IEP, EL, or FRL.
 - If a school is marked as CEP, all students are considered as FRL = Y even if the student does not have an active FRAM record.
 - If a school is marked as Provision II, all student's FRL status is Y.
- When the student's course or section is marked as cross-site and the 'Exclude Cross-Site Data' checkbox is marked on the extract editor, the cross-site course / section enrollment does NOT count toward attendance.
- Attendance occurring any time during the reporting period is counted.
 - The Attendance total reports under the school where the student was enrolled on the 100th day, even if earlier attendance was in a different school/calendar.
 - Attendance total reports under the grade level the student is in as of the 100th day, even if earlier attendance was in an enrollment in a different grade level.
 - Enrolled days are distinct. If overlapping enrollments exist, the attendance day is counted only once. Attendance is calculated from the primary enrollment for the overlap date.
 - Attendance is not counted during gaps in the schedule.
 - Days between enrollments do not impact attendance totals.
- Attendance is calculated as follows.
 - Sum of minutes scheduled
 - Minus minutes absent
 - If the result is less than 1/2 of the sum of minutes scheduled, then the day is counted as Present.
 - If the result is greater than or equal to 1/2 of the sum of minutes scheduled, then the day is counted as Absent.
- Total Days Present is calculated as follows:
 - Sum of all enrolled Instructional days up to the 100th (or 80th) day
 - Minus sum of all absence days
