Report Logic

Students who are actively enrolled in the year and school selected in the Campus toolbar as of the date entered in the Locker Assignment Date / Enrollment Effective Date on the report editor are included in the report when a student does NOT have an active locker assignment that meets the selections on the report editor. Note that an active locker assignment is one in which there is a Start Date on the student's Locker record but no End Date.

The report looks for students who have never had a locker assignment for the selected Locker Type (both Locker Start Date and Locker End Date are blank) or had a locker assignment for the selected Locker Type in the past (the Locker End Date field is populated with a date in the past).

Enrollment records that are marked as No Show are not included in the report, even when those no show students do not have locker assignments and match the entered criteria.

The student may have a locker assignment at another school. The student is included only when there is no locker assignment for that student in the selected school and school year.
