Tool Search: Impact Aid/Military Connections Site

The Impact Aid Site tool is used to track Impact Aid (Title VIII) sites in a district. Impact Aid Sites can be created on this tool. The Impact Aid Program provides financial assistance to school districts that include in the district boundaries parcels of federal land.

Impact Aid/Military Connections Site Editor

See the People Setup Tool Rights article for information about rights needed to use this tool.

Sites created on this tool will populate the following fields:

- Site - Impact Aid Tool
- Impact Aid Site - Address Info Tool

In order for the Impact Aid information to display, the System Preference of Turn on Federal Impact Aid Tracking needs to be set to Yes.

Impact Aid Workflow

Add Impact Aid and Military Connection Sites

1. Select the New icon from the action bar. An Impact Aid/Military Connections Site Detail displays.
2. Enter the Name of the Impact Aid Site.
3. Enter the Code for the Site. NOTE: For users in Montana, the code MUST be 10 characters exactly in alphanumeric format and must be unique (meaning, the same code cannot be assigned to other Impact Aid Sites).
4. Enter a Description of the site.
5. Mark the Indian Land checkbox to indicate the site is on a reservation or other land designated as part of a Tribal community.
6. Enter the Address of the Site.
7. Enter the City and Zip Code of the Site.
8. Click the Save icon when finished. The new site will be listed in the Impact Aid/Military Connections Site Editor.
