

Behavior Settings - Study Guide

Last Modified on 06/26/2023 1:40 pm CDT

The Behavior tools are used to manage behavior-related data for a school district. The Behavior Settings tools are used to set up preferences for tracking data related to behavior events, resolutions, and responses.

- Overview of Behavior Module and Setup Options
  - Behavior Module Overview
  - Behavior Settings
- Areas That May Impact Behavior Set Up
  - District Assignments
  - Custom Attribute Dictionary
  - Campus Digital Repository \(CDR\)

Overview of Behavior Module and Setup Options

Behavior Module Overview

Use this overview to learn about the tasks, skills and procedures related to recording, maintaining, communicating and reporting behavior information.

+ Documentation

Behavior Settings

This content provides an information regarding the tools used to configure behavior preferences and define behavior events, resolutions and response types.

+ Video

+ Video

+ Video

Areas That May Impact Behavior Set Up

District Assignments

Settings made in District Assignments can impact where staff names appear in behavior-related areas of Campus.

+ Documentation

Custom Attribute Dictionary

Districts can use the Custom Attribute Dictionary to create and place custom elements like fields and lists for use in Campus.

+ Documentation

Campus Digital Repository (CDR)

Districts who have purchase Campus Digital Repository (CDR) as a storage area for files utilized within Campus can use those tools to select where documents such as behavior-related files may be uploaded.

+ Documentation

+ Video

---