Activity Registration

Activity Registration Maintenance (SIS-148638)

The following improvements were made to the Activity Roll Forward tool.

- The error message that displays for the user when they attempt to delete a custom form associated with an activity was improved.
- The Inventory Limit now rolls forward from the original activity. Previously, the limit was reduced by the number that was purchased on the original activity. This issue was corrected.

- A new checkbox called Fill All was added to the second step of the roll forward process. The Fill All checkbox allows users to quickly select all activities and use the Fill Information window to assign registration and activity dates en masse.
- The Update Forms panel was updated to allow users to mark the default form as required. In addition, the Form Title field was changed to be a dropdown list and allows users to change the forms without having to remove them.
- The error messages that can display when users complete the roll forward now display in a window that is easier to read.
- It's now easier for users to ignore activities that they initially selected to roll forward but later decided not to complete. Campus displays an alert that lists the activities that cannot roll forward because of missing data. At that point, the user can choose to continue by ignoring those activities or return to the Activity Roll Forward tool to complete the missing information.
