Conditions - Video

Last Modified on 10/21/2024 8:21 am CDT

This video explains how to use the tools available for recording and tracking health condition data for an individual student, how to document treatments given to a student in school for an associated condition, how to schedule appointments for a student to come to the health office to receive treatments, and how to print a summary of a selected student's health condition information.