

Credit Groups - Video

Last Modified on 03/11/2024 8:46 am CDT

Credit groups define the types of credit earned upon successful completion of courses. This setup is district-wide, which means multiple schools can attach the same credit types to the courses they offer. This video provides an overview of how credit groups are defined and used.
