

Household Information Tool Rights

Last Modified on 11/07/2025 1:53 pm CST

Household Information, Household Addresses and Household Members are the three tools containing the basic information necessary to assemble and maintain household data.

See the Household Information article to learn how to use this tool.

Additional related tools and tool rights necessary for household maintenance and setup:

- Household Information: basic information like household name and phone number
- Household Addresses: current and historical record of physical and mailing addresses
- Household Members: current and historical record of people living in the household

General Tool Rights

R	W	A	D
View household information.	View, add and modify household information.	N/A	Delete household information if other records are not tied to it.

Suggested User Groups

- Principals
- Counselors

See User Groups and Suggested Roles for more information.