Account Security Preferences - Start here

Last Modified on 07/28/2026 4:38 pm CDT

Account Security Preferences allow you to control various functionality, such as resetting passwords, restricting Product Security Users from logging in as other people, auditing users, and automatically creating or disabling student and staff accounts.

Getting started

Learn about account security preference - Video

How-to guides

Student Account Automation

- Enable automatic creation of student accounts | Video
- Automatically disable student accounts
- Communicate new user accounts to students

Staff Account Automation

- Enable automatic creation of staff accounts | Video
- Automatically disable staff members
- Communicate new user accounts to staff members

Explanation

- Understand each account security preference
- Resolve an invalid rules configuration
- Review the User Group Report to assist in creating and modifying rules