Attendance Clerks use the Attendance Monitor to see which teachers have submitted attendance for the courses they teach. They can also enter attendance for teachers or substitute teachers (for example, when attendance is submitted on paper by a substitute teacher) by selecting a course section from the grid.

See the Classroom Monitor article to learn more about how to use this tool.

Classroom Monitor

Virtual Attendance: Districts recording attendance for virtual classes can set Virtual Attendance Preferences that impact what displays in Classroom Monitor, as well as how teachers, students, and parents indicate participation in virtual classes.

School Months: Districts that allow attendance to be modified after a closed date of a School Month need to ensure the appropriate user group has:

- Read and Write rights assigned to Classroom Monitor;
- Modify Rights checkbox marked on the Calendar School Year rights;
- At least Read and Write rights assigned to School Months; OR
- The Close School Months checkbox is marked on the Calendar School Year rights.
