Open Enrollment

Last Modified on 07/10/2025 2:10 pm CDT

Open Enrollment tools are used to create applications and manage the lottery to award available seats. Approved students receive notifications and are enrolled, while those not selected are placed on a waitlist. If additional seats become available, students on the waitlist are offered enrollment in order.