Observation Type Setup - Start here

Last Modified on 07/28/2026 3:28 pm CDT

The Observation Type Setup tool allows the creation of pre-defined observations used for student health complaints. These observations are assigned to a student through the Health Office Visits tool and are used in directing nurses to document specific observations during a health office visit.

Tutorials

- Observation Type Setup Video

How-to guides

- Add a new Observation Type

Explanation

- What is an Observation Type?

Reference

Administrator Setup

- Health Administration Tool Rights