Scheduling Board Overview - Video

Last Modified on 05/28/2026 9:54 am CDT

This video provides an overview of the Scheduling Board and the tools found within it. This overview is intended to familiarize the user with the many options available on the Scheduling board but does not give detailed instruction on how or when to use them.

See the Scheduling Board article for more complete explanation of the purpose of each setting and selection on the Scheduling Board.

The Checklist For Scheduling and Scheduling Board - Getting Started articles have links to information regarding all the tasks that must be completed prior to using the Scheduling Board.

Since this is an overview video, not every available selection or option will be covered in detail. Also, since new features are added from time to time, the newest options may not be displayed in this video.
