

Score Group & Rubric Setup - Start here

Last Modified on 06/16/2026 9:54 am CDT

Score Groups and Rubrics are two different ways to determine the scores that make up the basis of grading. While very similar, Score Groups hold objective marks for traditional grading (98% = A, 60% or less = F for example) while Rubrics hold subjective marks for standards grading (Pass, Fail, etc.).

How-To Guides

- Create a score group | Video
- Create a rubric | Video | Simulation

Reference

- Score group and rubric field descriptions
- State-specific information

Administrator Setup

- Grading Setup Tool Rights

Explanation

Power Law

- Power Law fields for rubrics
- Formula used to calculate Power Law
- Power Law example