Behavior (Utah)

Last Modified on 11/02/2026 12:13 pm CST

Path: Behavior Office > Behavior Management

The Behavior Management Tool allows users with the appropriate tool rights to manage existing behavior as well as enter new behavior incidents.

Behavior fields that are specific to the state of Utah are described below in the Behavior Response and Participant Details sections. See the core Behavior Management article for information on necessary tool rights, available Ad hoc fields, and guidance managing Behavior information.

Behavior Management tool

Behavior Response

Field	Description	Location

ESI Purpose	Indicates why an ESI was used. Options are: • A: Immediate and Significant Threat to Adult • O: Other • P: Immediate and Significant Threat to Another Student or Child • S: Immediate and Significant Threat to Self	Ad Hoc Inquiries: Student > Behavior > BehaviorResponse > responseReason Database Location: behaviorResponse.responseReason
ESI Outcome	Indicates the outcome(s) of the incident. More than one outcome may apply. Options are: • A: Assessment • C- Current supports/services • E: External agency/professional • I: Internal Support • O: Other • P: Plan • T: Training	Ad Hoc Inquiries: Student > Behavior > BehaviorResponse > PostResponseActions Database Location: behaviorResponse.postResponseActions
Alternative Education	Indicates if an alternative intervention other than ESI was used.	Ad Hoc Inquiries: Student > Behavior > Behavior Response > techniqueUsed Database Location: behaviorResponse.techniqueUsed

Behavior Response > Participant Details

Field	Description	Location

ESI Training Offered	Indicates if Comprehensive ESI training was offered to the staff involved in the use of an ESI at the school prior to the time of the incident.	Database Location: behaviorResponseRole.trainingOffered
ESI Training Received	Indicates if the Comprehensive ESI training was received by the staff involved in the use of the ESI at the time of the incident.	Database Location: behaviorResponseRole.trainingReceived