Upcoming Messages is now Message Activity in Messenger 2.0

Product Path: Communication > Messenger > Messenger 2.0

The Upcoming Messages in Messenger 2.0 has been replaced with Message Activity, which adds message information, makes message cancellation features easier to access, and includes a Sent tab that shows messages sent in the last seven days. Additionally, a new shared filter component has been added to the In Progress tab, providing users with options to filter the list by My/All Messages, Created By, Subject, Status, and Calendar.

More to come in .2643!
